9. On 1 April 1951, the Amoy Public Security Bureau ordered residents in the area to organize stretcher-bearer units. Each chia (份) in Amoy must contribute one stretcher and three physically fit men for these units.
10. On 1 April 1951, the Chinese Communist Amoy Shipping Administration (ASA) renewed its recruiting program. Four hundred and fifty fishermen, who were previously recruited but recently allowed to return home, will be assigned as crew members on Chinese Communist junks which will be used by authorities to transport food supplies. Between early April and early June 1951, authorities are planning to transport four million piculs of rice from the China interior to Amoy. Three hundred officers and men of the Hai Yen (海晏) Unit, 29 Army, billeted in ASA buildings, are aiding the ASA in processing and controlling the recruited fishermen.
